Sunday was a beautiful day for Thorndale Fire Company's Community Day car show. They had about 55 cars show up for their annual event, and they had quite a few nice prizes they raffled off that included free state inspections and free oil changes and things of that nature. In fact, our "guaranteed to win something" member, Jack Wright, won a nice prize. Go figure! I would like to thank all the members of CCACC and all the non-members who came out to support the men and women who provide us with an invaluable protection service.

And last but not least, I would especially like to thank Mark Cursey, Jack Robinson, George Morton and Dave Shingle for the exceptional way they handled parking the show cars. No fuss, no muss, no chaos. Nice job guys, thank you.

HUMOR

While golfing, a grey-haired gentleman accidentally overturned his golf cart late one afternoon. A very attractive, young female golfer, who lived in a villa on the course, heard the noise and called out, "Are you OK?"

"I'm OK, thanks," he replied, as he pulled himself out of the twisted cart.

She said, "Come on up to my villa, rest a while, and I'll help you get the cart up later."

The old guy noticed her silky bathrobe was partially open, revealing what appeared to be a very nice figure. "That's really nice of you," he answered, "but I don't think my wife would like it."

"Oh, come on now!" she insisted

She was so pretty and so very persuasive. He sighed...."Well, I guess it's OK," he finally agreed.

After a couple of Scotches, he thanked her and said, "I feel a lot better Now, but I know my wife is going to be really upset. So I'd better go now."

"Don't be silly!" she said with a smile, letting her robe fall slightly more open. "Stay for a while. Your wife won't know anything. By the way, where is she?"

He replied, "I'm guessing still under the cart."
